AACF needs your help to make change happen!

AACF closely follows state legislation that affects children and their families in Arkansas. View the current legislation we are tracking and take action to notify your representative of your opinion on how and why they should vote on these important issues.

Utilize the tools and resources below to assist you in identifying and communicating effectively with members of the Arkansas legislature including a list of various media outlets in the state.

- If you don't know who your state legislators are OR don't have their contact information, we suggest following this link within Arkansas Advocates for Children and Families website. It should take you to the page shown here.
- Put in your zip code to find out who your legislators are.
- If you live in zip code with multiple state legislators, you may get another box prompting you to put in your full address. This will get you to the right one.
- You representatives' email address may not show up when you click their picture. If it does not, click into their web page. There you should find their email address and other contact info.

THANK YOU for going on this quest 😊 YOU are the ECE experts in your district and your state legislators are relying on YOU to help them make informed decisions!
